

Submission Guidelines

IPVarna Law Review invites original, unpublished, and academically rigorous manuscripts contributing to the field of Intellectual Property Law. To maintain consistency, clarity, and scholarly excellence, all authors must adhere to the following submission guidelines.

1. Manuscript Formatting

Manuscripts must be submitted in .doc or .docx format only, and the file should be named using the format: “AuthorName_PaperTitle”.

All manuscripts must comply with the following formatting requirements:

- Font: Times New Roman
- Font Size: 12-point for main text; 10-point for footnotes
- Line Spacing: 1.5 for main text; 1.0 for footnotes
- Alignment: Justified
- Citation Style: ILI Citation Style
- Manuscript Structure:
 - Title of the paper
 - Abstract (150–200 words) with 3–5 keywords
 - Main body
 - Conclusion
 - Bibliography or references

To maintain the integrity of the double-blind review, manuscripts must not contain any identifying author information.

2. Submission Categories and Word Limits

Submissions are accepted in the following categories:

- Articles: 3000–6000 words
- Essays: 1000–3000 words
- Case Comments: 1000–1500 words

Word count is exclusive of footnotes. Manuscripts exceeding these limits will be rejected without review.

3. Originality and Declarations

Authors must confirm that their submission is original, unpublished, and not under consideration elsewhere. Plagiarism above 15% similarity is not tolerated and will lead to rejection.

Use of AI-generated content is strictly prohibited. Any detection of such content will disqualify the manuscript.

All authors must provide their name, institutional affiliation, email address, and a copyright declaration through the submission form. This information is required to comply with ethical and legal publishing standards and will be kept confidential until the publication.
